To Advertisers.

All advertisements intended to appear in the current week should be handed in as early as Wednesday noon.

Bank Notice.

No business will be transacted at our office Christmas Day, Wednesday Dec. 25th, 1887, New Year Day, Wednesday Jan. 1st, 1888.

Cashier First National Bank.

F. B. WHITE,
Cashier First National Bank.

A Card—Superintendent Nottingham.

In behalf of the Cleveland, Painesville and Ashtabula Railroad Company, desires to express his gratitude to the Hon. Mayor, Mr. Bell, and to the citizens of Fremont generally for their sympathy and active help in the late disaster.

Crowded out—The report of the Bible Society was unavailingly crowded out this week.

Take notice of Leppelman's local notice on the Burdett organ as it stands corrected this week.

Good trade.—The Streets have been full of teams all the week and trade has been good in all departments.

Agricultural Report.—We are under obligations to FRANK BROWN, Esq., President of the Co. Ag. Society, for a copy of the Ohio Agricultural Report for 1886.

More Lectures.—A Lecture Committee is in correspondence with several first-class lecturers, and hope to secure two or three, at least, before the season is over.

Doing Well.—Mr. CHARLES CLAY, who met with such a serious accident last week is recovering as fast as could be expected, under the care of Dr. Housa.

Thanks.—We are indebted to Hon. TOM A. JACKSON for a copy of his report on the Civil Service of the United States, and to Gen. BUCKLAND for copies of the Daily Globe.

The Excelsior.—The Excelsior are badly demoralized. Nearly every gentleman to the club has married since last winter. There must have been some interesting action "behind the scenes."

A Partner.—ZIMMERMAN took his oldest son into partnership with him in the jewelry business on Monday. ZIMMERMAN, Jr. is extremely youthful but is said to be a lad of promise.

Down Town.—HARRISON and WILSON expect to remove their dry goods establishment to the room now occupied by Mr. Betts, sometime in January. Their business has outgrown their small room.

Another Accident.—Mr. G. M. MOSE had his leg very severely injured on Saturday night, moving timber from the new bridge. The axle broke and the wheel fell and the foot and toe were injured. He is doing well.

Death.—Mr. J. W. SMITH, one of the most respected citizens of Clyde, died of consumption on Thursday last. His funeral took place in Bellevue on Sunday and was attended by a very large number of people from Clyde and vicinity.

Council.—The Council, on Monday night, borrowed $1000 from the Bank of Fremont at 30 cents on the dollar, to be repaid from the first June collection. They also appointed BERTS and BAKER as a committee to see about the purchase of the new house.

Remember the entertainments given by the High School on Saturday and Monday evenings and give them good houses. A few scenes from "The Devil" will be rendered on Saturday night, and two from "Mischief" on Monday evening.

Errata.—In the report of examinations in our last week's issue, Mr. J. B. LEWIS was reported as having secured 94 marks. As Mr. LEWIS is one of the finest scholars in the State, a minor mark has no business in the vicinity of his name.

New Block.—HARRISON, who was lately in the Boot and Shoe business in Fremont and Hall's block, has put up a two-story brick block, on the hill on State Street and will carry on manufacturing of Boots and Shoes as well as a regular retail trade.

Continuation of the L. E. & E. R. B.—A meeting of committee appointed by the people of the town interested in the project of finishing the Lake Erie & Louisville Railroad to Lima and further west, was held in Findlay on the 18th inst.; but with what result we have been unable to learn.

Singing Schools.—Mr. R. W. LEWIS has three singing schools in operation in this vicinity. One is held at Winter's Station, every Saturday evening; another at Cooper's schoolhouse, every Wednesday evening; and the other at Tucker's schoolhouse every Friday evening.

Putting it Strong.—The Findlay Jail-ferocious has a strong report of the agent of last Thursday.

We learn by telegraph that yesterday morning, as a freight train was crossing the bridge at Fremont on the C. & T. road, the heavy load on the bridge broke the track into the river, instantly killing nine persons.

Long John.—Mr. W. W. GILMORE of Ballville Township, left at our office on Monday, a large basket of fine quality apples, and we are very much obliged to him for them. They are all good and appreciative thanks to that bounteous which is the paradise of all good apples. They were too good to live long upon the earth.

The Fremont Social will hold their next dance at Union Hall on Tuesday evening Dec. 24th. It is expected that every member will procure their season tickets before that time and now will be admitted without them. Tickets can be had of S. P. MENG, Treasurer any time.

Accident.—Mr. JOHN NEWMAN met with an accident, which will disable him for some time, while handling freight at the cars on the east side of the bridge, on Saturday last, when a heavy box, which he was carrying, fell upon his head and badly smashed. Dr. Brown was called and gave him the proper surgical assistance and he is now doing well.

The Accident.—Our report of the rail-road accident of last Thursday was correct in almost every particular, although the storm and multiplicity of reports made it difficult to get at real facts. The train was thrown from the track by the sheet iron roof which had blown down from the north side, across the track with the roof boards attached. The wheel of the engine cut the track until it had passed the center pier, and then was thrown from the track on the north side. Of course the impetus of the moving train soon sent through the timbers and broke down the bridge. The accident was one of those sometimes happen in spite of all ordinary precautions. The roof was thought to be securely fastened but the gale which blew up the river tore it up just as storms sometimes unseat the strongest buildings. The storm prevented the damage to the bridge being discovered until it was too late. The Engineer, who was looking out on the south side, says that through the storm the bridge looked as if the track had been taken up and the engine running on the smooth road, while to the Fireman, who saw it from the north side, the engine appeared to be running over the bare timbers. The idea that something was wrong had scarcely occurred their minds when the crash came and they found themselves struggling in the water. Conductor CARVER soon felt behind him the heavy sheet iron roof, which he and the Engineer, who neither joined the engine and tender. They neither knew nor saw him when the bridge fell. The Engineer says that he was not conscious of falling until he reached the water. He remembers sinking slowly to the gravelly bottom, where, for an instant, he seemed to be held by an immense weight, the sheet iron roof, which had come down upon him, and then came the sensation of pressure slowly removed and he found himself struggling towards the bank through ice and broken timbers of the wreck. The Fireman was severely cut about the head, but is nearly recovered from the shock. The Engineer is internal and more serious, and it will require a longer time for his recovery.

Conductor CARVER's body was not recovered until Saturday and when found was not so badly injured as was supposed by the accident. He was suffering from the shock and was brought to town and an inquest held before Justice TRICK. The funeral services were attended at Bellevue on Saturday by a large number of people, an extra train being sent down from Cleveland for the accommodation of his friends and associates who wished to be present.

To Skatists.—HALL'S Journal of Health says to skatists: Before starting for the ice, make sure you are in good health. Do not go out in the cold weather, and do not go out in the cold weather, and do not go out in the cold weather.

The Dayton Journal recommends, also, cold water and cold water.

Gen. J. A. Malby.—A dispatch from Vicksburg of the 13th announces the death of Gen. J. A. Malby of the 13th.

The Pearl of Savoy.—To-night the Municipal club render their first play this season at Birchard Hall. The success of the Fanciers, last winter, led them to select "The Pearl of Savoy," written by the same author.

The first act opens in a cottage under the shadow of the Alps, the home of MARR.

Arriving in Paris, she finds herself alone in the great city, the friend of the Priest having long since died, but her sweet voice lives in her friends and she carries on her hopes living and sends her little savings to her parents in Savoy. Meantime Andre has found her out and meets her as her teacher. Her old friends Coccochi, a wild peasant girl, and Pizarro, the rough but faithful organ grinder, have also found her.

The Marchioness, who suspects Arthur's love affair and is determined that she shall marry the Marchioness, calls on her to Marie with the Commander, and engages her to sing at a party to be given in honor of the betrothal of Arthur to the Duchess d'Essex. At the party Marie discovers that her lover Andre is a Marquis, sinks in a swoon and is left to the care of the Commander, who believes her to be dead.
